

Hospice Lotteries Association Conference 2008

The Hospice Lotteries Association Conference 2008 will be held in beautiful 'Shakespeare Country' at the Stratford Manor Hotel, Stratford upon Avon on Wednesday and Thursday 10th and 11th September 2008. This is a brand new venue which promises to exceed all expectations in respect of quality and service. It is in the heart of the Midlands and easily accessed by air, train or the motorway network.

You are invited to join us for what promises to be an extremely interesting, exciting and relevant conference including plenty of opportunity for networking with likeminded colleagues. The format for this year has been designed to motivate and re-invigorate delegates, who will hopefully return to their hospices with lots of new ideas to propel their lotteries on to even greater success.

We are delighted to announce that our guest speaker this year is Fiona Castle, wife of the late Roy Castle, who promises to give a fascinating insight into her life with Roy and her work since his death. For the first time ever there will be a workshop specifically designed for anyone thinking of running a lottery, just starting their lottery or within the first 12 months of operation and with every hospice in the country receiving an invitation we anticipate that this year's event will be a sell out so please don't leave it too long before placing your booking.

Prices for the conference all include:

- Single occupancy of excellent rooms, which are this year identical in size and décor.
- All conference facilities, speakers and workshops.
- Dinner, Bed and Breakfast including a fantastic Casino Royale gala dinner for those booking the full conference package.
- Full use of all hotel leisure facilities (including the tennis courts!).

Additional options:

- Booking for night prior to further enhance networking opportunities.
- Day delegate rates available.

Bookings received before 1st JULY 2008 will benefit from a discounted rate as indicated in the booking form below.

Please return completed booking forms as soon as possible, together with your cheque made payable to HLA Conference Account to:
